Dear Brent,

I am sending you this correspondence since it has never been clear to me who is the head of the PVHA and to whom I should direct correspondence.

I am enclosing for your information and review my letter to PVHA of 9/14/91, 5/4/92, and 6/19/92 (not mailed) and Glen Fullers of 6/27/92 and a copy of a license for conditional use of our Dugway road.

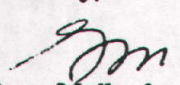

Since your cattle drive on June 17 and discussions with your members present at that time we have had to reevaluate our stand on issues concerning our property.

Numerous incidents that have occurred are disturbing to me as well as Glen Fuller. Rather than asking, a demand was made for keys to the Dugway road gate and to our yard gate. We will not issue a key to the Dugway gate and I will have to re think why I would issue a key to our yard gate. When your cattle came through on June 17th there was a demand to cut our new fence, which we did and had to repair later. When several of your riders exited through our roads and main yard they took our fence apart at the gate and left it unrepaired. Late in the afternoon of 7/1 when I departed, I discovered the chain and all of the locks missing from the PVHA gate on the main road, I reported this to Garth and he stopped by your house that evening to ask you about it. The next day when Kim Fuller went out he found the chain in place, but with our lock missing! He had another set of locks and proceeded to install a new lock for us.

All of these incidents are very costly to all of us and do nothing to pave the way for a harmonious relationship. We do not intend to do anything with our operation beyond our legal rights and we are spending substantial sums of money to do things correctly. We would like to get along with the PVHA people, but it must be with a mutual understanding of each others rights and a genuine spirit of recognizing those rights without feelings of resentment, and a willingness of each party to pay their fair share. Your ideas and comments will be given our full consideration.

If the Dugway road license meets with your approval, please sign and return before the end of July. I will then sign and return a copy to you.

Sincerely,

Gary Mullard
President
